Boys meet boxing legend

TAEKWONDO triplets of Gants Hills were given a once in a lifetime opportunity to meet with boxing champion Amir Khan at his Bolton Gym.

Ilyas, Ibrahim and Ismail Hussain train at Gurumu Taekwondo and are on the Great Britain National Cadet Team. Ilyas and Ibrahim attend Beal High School whilst Ismail attend Ilford County High.

The meeting focused on highlights of Amir's career, discipline in training and diet as well as preparation.

The siblings, aged 12, wanted to find out more about what it takes to make a world champion and the discipline involved. Whilst Amir was also asking questions to the boys about the Olympic Sport of Taekwondo and shooting various questions about weight categories, their goals and ambitions and how often they train.

WOMAN IN SEX ATTACK ORDEAL

A YOUNG woman was sexually assaulted by an attacker with a knife as she walked through the Hollow Ponds area of Whipps Cross last week.

Police have appealed for public help in identifying the man who assaulted the woman at 9.30am on Thursday, August 28.

A spokesman for Waltham Police said: "The victim was a 33-year-old woman who was jogging in the area when she was grabbed from behind and molested by a man who threatened her with a knife.

"During the struggle she scratched the suspect's neck with her door keys."

The victim was wearing back jogging bottoms with a white stripe, a black top with purple at the side and grey and pink training shoes.

The suspect is a black male, approximately 30-years-old, 5ft 5" tall of muscular build. At the time of the incident he was wearing a black short-sleeved t-shirt/top.

Police would like to hear from anyone who was in the Hollow Ponds area of Whipps Cross around the time of this incident who saw either the victim or the suspect and from anyone who may have information concerning the identity of the suspect.

Anyone with information should contact Detective Sergeant Lee Taylor, detective sergeant Vicky Cullen or detective sergeant Will Lexton-Jones of Waltham Forest CID by dialling 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 quoting reference 4917677/14.

DS Taylor said: "Your call could help eliminate someone from Police enquiries or may help remove a criminal from your area."

Competition

WIN A CHRISTMAS BASH WITH BEST PARTIES EVER

PREMIERE... Red Carpet in the Riviera will be held at Barleylands, Billericay, this Christmas offering a glamorous taste of jet set life – dodging the paparazzi, and rubbing shoulders with Riviera elite and movie stars alike.

To give you the chance to join in the fun, Best Parties Ever are giving away a table of 10 at one of their Christmas party nights, worth a total of £500.

Dine under the stars in the palm lined splendour of the glamorous dining room and enjoy a four-course meal, while the white tuxedoed resident band entertains you.

Exhilarating bursts of sophisticated glitz will come courtesy of a professional cast of aerialists, acrobats and West End singers and dancers, and if that's not enough there's a casino, Best Parties Ever's famous dogdems (a small charge applies) – and of course, dancing!

Best Parties Ever's 2014 party season in Billericay runs from November 28 to December 20, with prices starting from £45 per head.

For more information call on 0844 499 4040, e-mail sales@bestpartiesever.com or visit www.bestpartiesever.com

For your chance to win simply answer the following question:

Q: Which colour carpet will you be walking along at this year's Best

THEMED: A scene from Red Carpet in the Riviera

Parties Ever event at Barleylands?

A: Blue carpet

B: Yellow carpet

C: Red carpet

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C – to (0901 307 1683) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Police seek missing sisters

POLICE are growing increasingly concerned for the welfare of two sisters who could be in east London.

Inderjit Kaur, 12 and Harpreet Kaur, 14, were last seen at their home in Grays, Essex, at 7pm on Sunday, August 31.

Police are now appealing to the public and any of their friends to call officers if they have any information about their whereabouts.

Enquiries are being carried out in east London as they are known to have friends there.

Inderjit is described as Asian, of slim build with shoulder-length dark hair and around 5 ft 2ins tall. She was last seen wearing a pink jumper and black trainers.

Harpreet is described as Asian, of slim build with dark shoulder-length hair which is possibly tied back and around 5ft tall.

She was last seen wearing grey jeans with a yellow cardigan and black trainers.

Anyone with information should contact Essex Police on 101.

Body identified

A MAN who died after he was struck by a train at Gidea Park railway station has been identified.

British Transport Police said they are not treating the man's death as suspicious.

Lewis Brian Appleby, 62, died on Saturday, August 23 at 8.08pm.

Officers and paramedics were called to the station shortly after 8pm, but he was pronounced dead at the scene.

A British Transport Police (BTP) spokesman said: "We were called to Gidea Park station on Saturday, August 23, to reports a man had been struck by a train."

An inquest investigating the death opened at Walthamstow Coroners Court on Monday, September 1, and adjourned the same day.

Roadshow hits town

ANTIQUES: Fiona Bruce with the crowds gathered at Waltham Forest Town Hall

HUNDREDS of people turned out in the Sunday sun to get their heirlooms valued at Waltham Forest Town Hall.

Residents turned out in force for the filming of the Antiques Roadshow, bringing keepsakes from attics and mantelpieces the length and breadth of the borough. Presenter Fiona Bruce told locals how she was excited to be part of the new series.

She said: "This will be my seventh year on the show and I still feel so lucky to be presenting the programme."

"Every week is different; a new location and thousands of new visitors. The only constant is the pleasure of the unexpected – we never know what will turn up, from the most fabulous Fabergé to the most humble object with a riveting story."

Some of Britain's leading antiques and fine arts specialists ran their eye over the variety of objects that were brought along by local people. As well as the all-important valuation, the experts were also on hand to offer free advice and some invaluable background relating to family heirlooms. The show will form part of Antiques Roadshow's 37th series, which is due to be screened on BBC1 early next year.

Council Leader Chris Robbins said: "It was great to see so many people enjoying the day and bringing so many interesting antiques for the experts to assess. Household treasures and car boot bargains alike were presented for inspection and more than a few hidden gems were uncovered."

"We did what we could to encourage the Antiques Roadshow to come here and I think they were pleased they did. We're a borough with a rich heritage and after all those country estates I think we provided them with something both interesting and different."

Golf day to drive up funds

GOLFERS are invited to enjoy a round of golf and drive up funds for patient care by joining Saint Francis Hospice's Autumn Golf Day. The hospice's Autumn Golf Day takes place on Thursday, September 25, at Abridge Golf and Country Club, Stapleford Tawney.

The course was designed by the legendary Henry Cotton, who won the open championships in the 1930s and 40s.

It is sponsored by Barry Hearn and his company Matchroom Sport and golfers can enjoy an 18-hole round of golf, breakfast, three course dinner and auction presented by Barry Hearn.

Hospice fundraiser Katy Woodgate said: "Our golf days are a hit and this event promises golfers plenty of friendly competition, delicious food and a great course. What's more the money raised goes towards supporting people in your community affected by cancer, heart disease or other life-limiting illness when they need the specialise care Saint Francis Hospice provides."

To book a place at the golf day or sponsor a hole, email fundraising@sfh.org.uk or call 01708 771405 and to find out more about the charity please visit www.sfh.org.uk

New members for NHS Trust

NEW appointments have been made to the board of Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust.

The chief inspector of hospitals made it clear that it was essential that the trust was well-led, with a visible top team who can spearhead improvements in patient care.

It comes after the trust was placed in special measures in December last year.

The trust published a raft of improvements in its improvement plan, 'Unlocking Our Potential', in April.

Over the past few months the trust has appointed a new chief executive, chairman, chief operating officer, finance director and improvement director.

The trust also has a new director of planning and governance.

Jason Seez comes to BHRUT from Medway NHS Foundation Trust where he was executive director of strategy and infrastructure.

Prior to that he worked for Barts Health NHS Trust.

Joining him on the board will be Dusty Amroliwala OBE, who has been appointed as a non-executive director.

Dusty is the deputy vice-chancellor and chief operating officer of the University of East London.

Having begun his career in the Royal Air Force, he has also worked as the director of the civil service workforce in the Cabinet Office.

This week it was also announced that Steve Russell, who had been working for the trust as interim deputy chief executive, has been permanently appointed to the role. Chief executive Matthew Hopkins said: "This is a very exciting time for the organisation.

"I know that we are putting in place a team that can lead the Trust through our improvement plan and out of special measures to become local hospitals that people will be proud of."

Hospitals update their plans

BARKING Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust has published an update on its 'improvement plan'.

The trust, which runs Queen's and King George hospitals, was placed in special measures in December last year, and published its improvement plan, unlocking our potential, in April.

The plan sets out how the organisation will work with its partners to improve healthcare and hospital services for the local population.

Hospital bosses said the latest monthly update addressed some of the issues highlighted by the care quality commission.

Chief executive Matthew Hopkins said there were now fewer clinic cancellations and better A&E staffing.

He said: "One of our key areas of focus is improving our outpatient service. We know that people are waiting too long to be seen, that notes are sometimes unavailable and too many clinics are cancelled.

"Our staff have been working hard to redesign a service that will offer our patients the experience they deserve.

"Within six weeks we have cut by the number of outpatient clinic cancellations by around 75 per cent."

One of the key challenges facing the hospitals is recruiting permanent, specialist doctors and consultants to their emergency departments.

Library jobs face the axe

H A V E R I N G Council's award winning library services could see the loss of 50 jobs and a reduction in library opening hours.

Havering Council said it must reduce its overall budget by around third over the next four years in response to Government funding cuts, inflationary costs and a growing ageing population.

Budget proposals released by the council show the library services must make £1.1 million in savings which could mean some branches will see a reduction in opening hours.

The council unveiled overall budget plans on Monday to make £60 million in savings.

Councillor Melvin Wallace, cabinet member for culture and community engagement, said Havering already receives the fourth lowest Government grant in London per head of population and has saved £40 million over the past four years.

He said: "I understand entirely that some staff are upset by the proposals, especially given the impact on jobs in the library service. There are other staff across the council who are also facing uncertainty around their jobs, and it's important we listen to them, as well as the public, before any plans are finalised."

"We've had to draw up proposals to reduce the council's budget by around a third and there are hard decisions to make across all our services."

"We're hugely proud of our libraries, which is why no library would close under our proposals."

"We believe that shortened opening hours is a small price worth paying to avoid closures, but we'll be happy to hear from staff or customers if they have alternative ideas."

RESIDENTS are invited to have a cuppa and raise money for MacMillan Cancer Support.

Lesley Skelton, who runs Romford Co-op Funeral care, organises the MacMillan coffee morning every year.

She said: "We want as many people to come in and join us to help us raise crucial money for this fantastic charity. We will be running a raffle."

"All of our branches are running the coffee morning." The coffee morning runs from 11am to 1.30pm on Friday September 26, at 148 North Street, Romford.

The proceeds from our raffle will be donated to MacMillan Cancer Support.

Alice in saddle for show

AN Upminster rider has won a coveted place to compete at the prestigious The Horse of the Year Show.

Alice Taylor, 20, has achieved every rider's ambition and qualified for this year's event after a winning performance at Houghton Hall Equestrian Centre in Cambridge on August 10. She had entered a competition for amateur riders called search for a star, organised by South East Essex Insurance.

Alice and Carbragh Lad will compete at the NEC Birmingham on October 11.

She said: "I have been to the Horse and the Year Show to watch, but this is my dream. We had just one chance and it all worked out."

Show judge, Richard Ramsay, said: "This competition gives amateurs the chance to compete at the Horse of the Year Show, a dream which many riders would love to realise and the standard in Search for a Star gets better every year."

Do you know this man?

POLICE want to speak to a man attacked a dad in front of his children.

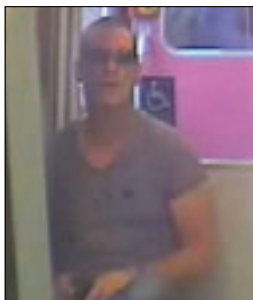

British Transport Police said the attacker got off the train at Harold Wood.

The assault happened at the central line Bishopsgate exit inside Liverpool Street station on Friday July 4, shortly after 6.30pm.

PC Alex Carter said: "The victim, a 35-year-old man, was about to make his way down the stairs to the tube with his wife and three children.

"As he prepared to pick up his two-year-old son from his buggy, another man making his way up the stairs tripped over him.

"The man then attacked the victim. Several passers-by shouted at the attacker to stop and he ran off.

PC Carter said: "Fortunately, the victim did not suffer any serious injuries, but this was a shocking attack carried out in full view of his family.

"I believe the attacker boarded a Shenfield-bound train and got off at Harold Wood.

"As part of our investigation, we have released an image of a man who we believe has valuable information about the attack.

"If you recognise him, please contact British Transport Police."

Anyone with information is asked to contact British Transport Police on 0800 40 50 40, or text 61016, quoting reference ESUB/B4 of 28/08/2014.

Information can also be passed anonymously to independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Have your say

on options for new river crossings in east London

We'd like your opinion on the following four options that will help improve connectivity between north and south of the river:

- A ferry service or bridge at Gallions Reach
- A new ferry at Woolwich
- A bridge at Belvedere

To find out more and provide us with your views, please visit tfl.gov.uk/new-river-crossings, call 0343 222 1234* or go to your local roadshow:

MG looks to next 90 years

By Enda Mullen

DEVOTION to a famous British brand which started out 90 years ago showed no sign of abating when an estimated 15,000 people gathered to celebrate MG's special birthday.

The event, organised by the MG Car Club, saw around 6,000 cars gather over the course of the two-day celebration at the Silverstone racing circuit in Northamptonshire.

The club, which was founded in 1930, organises just such a gathering every year, but this year's 90th anniversary event had added significance.

MG Motor was backing the event too, offering MG fans the opportunity to go on an interactive journey with 'MG Motor: The Next Ninety Years' - taking them behind the scenes of the company and offering a glimpse into its future.

The annual event sees MG owners from around the world gathering to show off their heritage cars spanning the whole of MG's 90-year history.

This year the MG Car Club organised a special timeline featuring models from every stage of the car-maker's history.

The famous MG initials were chosen by Cecil

VINTAGE LINE: MG celebrates a special birthday

Kimber, the founder of MG, who chose them as a "nod" to William Morris, his employer, and the owner of Morris Garages.

The first cars which were rebodied Morris models used coachwork from Carbodies of Coventry and were built in premises in Alfred Lane, Oxford.

A few years later, in 1924, Kimber designed the 14/28 Super Sports model, the first true MG, and the car that premiered the octagonal logo. The firm soon became known for its "affordable performance" cars.

After operating from a number of homes in and around Oxford MG moved to its permanent home in Abingdon, Oxfordshire.

The first MGs built in Birmingham at Longbridge were the MG1100/1300 family in 1962 and MG models were also produced in Cowley in Oxford.

MG built its millionth car, an MGB, in 1975.

Over the course of its history it became part of Morris Motors, BMC, British Leyland and BAE, before being bought by BMW in 1994.

In 2000, MG Rover Group was formed following separation from the BMW Group and production of the MG TF began.

In April 2005 MG Rover Group entered administration and the brand was purchased by NAC, which later merged with China's largest car maker SAIC.

In May 2011, the MG6 GT, the first all-new MG in 16 years was launched and the company recently entered the supermini market with its new MG3.

LONDON BOROUGH OF WALTHAM FOREST DESIGNATION OF AN AREA FOR SELECTIVE LICENSING Section 80, Housing Act 2004

Notice is hereby given that the London Borough of Waltham Forest in exercise of its powers under section 80 of the Housing Act 2004 ("the Act") has on the 24th day of June 2014 designated for selective licensing the area of the London Borough of Waltham Forest as delineated and edged red on the Map at Annex A.

The designation shall be known as the London Borough of Waltham Forest Designation of an Area for Selective Licensing 2014. The designation applies to any privately rented property subject to any statutory exceptions set out below.

The designation falls within a description of designations for which the Secretary of State has issued a General Approval under section 82 of Housing Act 2004: Licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation and Selective Licensing of Other Residential Accommodation (England) General Approval 2010 dated 30th March 2010. Therefore the designation need not be confirmed and will come into force on 1st April 2015 and unless previously revoked, this designation shall cease to have effect on 31st March 2020.

This designation applies to any house which is let or occupied under a tenancy or licence within the area shown at Annex A unless:

1. The house is a house in multiple occupation and is required to be licensed under Part 2 of the Act; or
2. The house is subject to a temporary exemption under section 86 of the Act; or
3. The house is subject to an Interim or Final Management Order under Chapter 1 or 2 of Part 4 of the Act;

4. The tenancy or licence of the house has been granted by a body which is registered as a social landlord under Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996;

5. The house is occupied under a tenancy or licence which is exempt under the Act or the occupation is of a building or part of a building so exempt as defined in The Selective Licensing of Houses (Specified Exemptions) (England) Order 2006 SI 370/2006

Upon the Designation coming into force on 1st April 2015 any person who operates a licensable property without a licence shall be guilty of an offence under Section 95(1) of the Act, and shall be liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine not exceeding £20,000. A person who breaches a condition of a licence is liable to prosecution and upon summary conviction liable to a fine not exceeding £5,000.

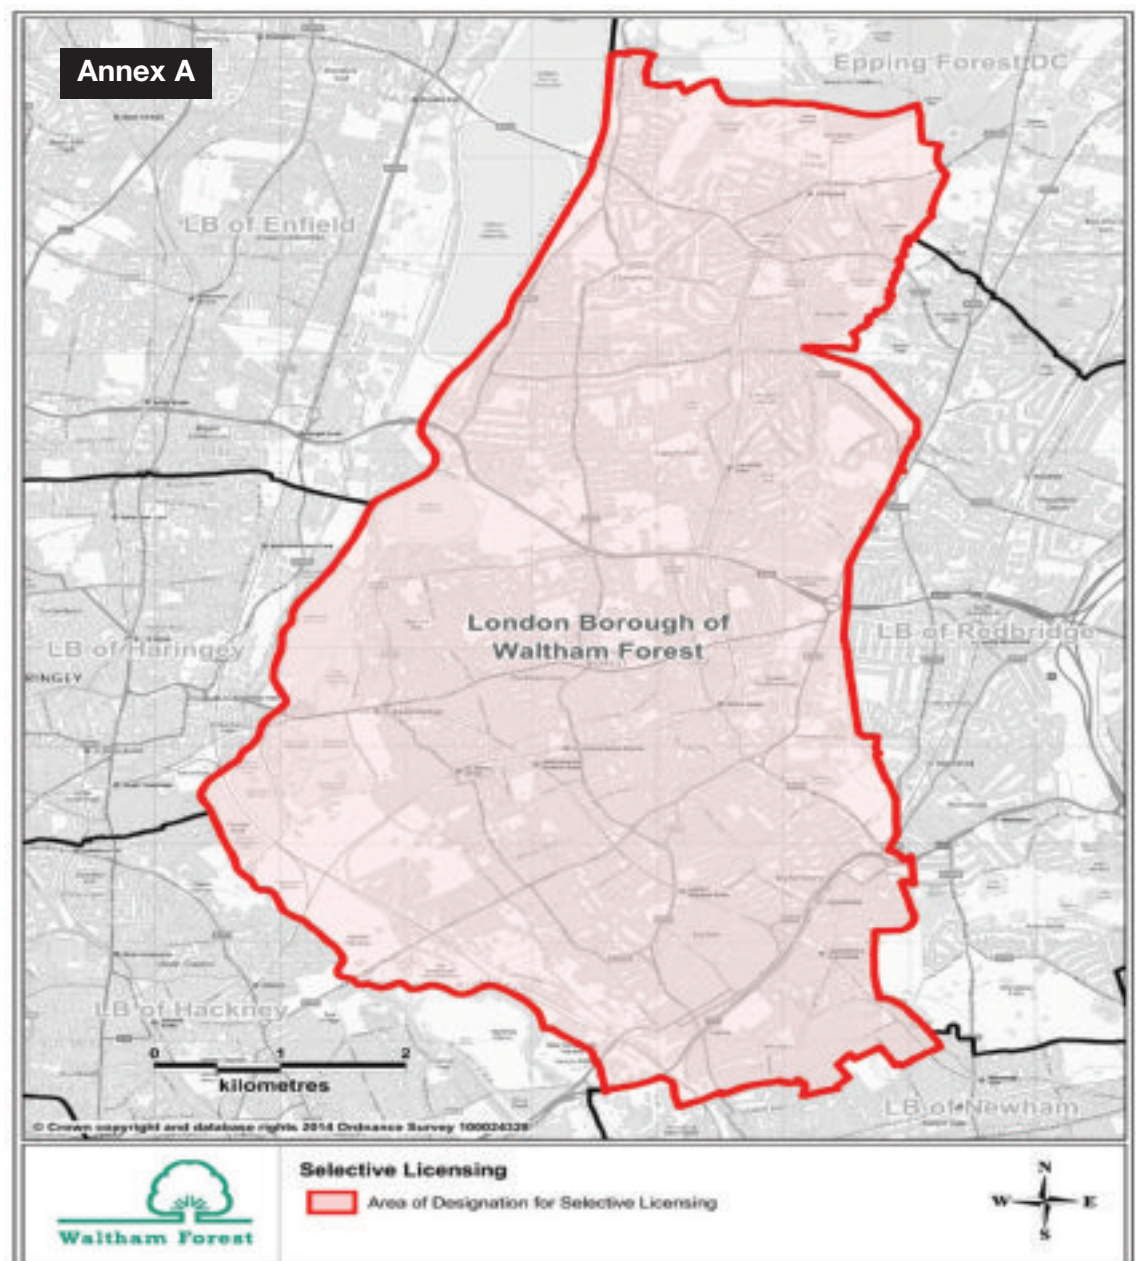

If you are a landlord, managing agent, or a tenant, and wish to inspect this designation, apply for a licence or require further information, this is available from:

FLAT HAMMERS FALL TO SAINTS

West Ham United

West Ham United 1 Southampton 3
Brian Jeeves reporting from Upton Park

WEST Ham United slumped to a disappointing Barclays Premier League defeat as rampant Southampton produced a scintillating second half performance at Upton Park.

The Hammers went into the game in eighth place, with three points from their opening two Premier League games. Meanwhile the Saints, under the management of Dutch legend Ronald Koeman, sat a further six positions back, but determined to shake off the tag of relegation candidates which had been pinned to the south coast outfit following an exodus of the clubs biggest talents during the summer.

Following a string of changes and a midweek Capital One Cup exit to Sheffield United, Hammers manager Sam Allardyce reverted to the same team that had won so impressively at Crystal Palace last week.

Indeed, because of the Palace result and performances in general, there seemed to be a newfound sense of optimism amongst the Upton Park crowd. This was heightened prior to kick-off as the club paraded new loan signing Alex Song from Barcelona.

But it was Southampton who started the brighter, creating the opening opportunity when Dusan Tadic forced Adrian to scramble across his goal. At the other end, Ricardo Vaz Te almost benefited from Carlton Cole's neat flick on, only for England international keeper Fraser Forster to read the situation.

Ryan Cresswell cleared behind after Tadic had broken and centred from the left as the Saints continued to look the more likely, while Steven Davis was wayward with a speculative effort from distance.

The Hammers began to find their feet, with Captain Mark Noble displaying tigerish qualities in the centre of midfield while Stewart Downing and Mauro Zarate toiled to create a viable opening.

Indeed, West Ham should have grabbed the lead when Vaz Te's close range effort was blocked by Forster after Downing's free-kick had deflected into his path. Nonetheless, just before the half hour mark West Ham broke the deadlock. Noble drove forward before firing a low effort beyond Forster that was deflected on its way by Maya Yoshida.

Saints looked for an immediate response. Pelle's header beat Adrian, but Cresswell was once again the man in the right place to clear off the line, then Davis fired over after a sweeping move down the left flank.

The visitors had gained some momentum, and just before the interval Southampton deservedly drew level. Morgan Schneiderlin producing a composed finish after his initial shot had been rebuffed by Joey O'Brien.

And the Saints looked to start the second period the way in which they'd finished the first. Shane Long forcing Adrian into a flying save after the former Hull City man had spun and struck neatly from the edge of the box. And Adrian was called into action again, clawing Tadic's fizzing drive around an upright as Southampton continued to press.

West Ham were wobbling, and they received a hug slice of luck when Graziano Pelle turned in James Ward-Prowse's dead-ball only for a hawk-eyed assistant to rule off-side.

This was turning into everything the performance at Palace hadn't been for the Hammers, with passes going astray and a general uneasiness circulating in the stands. And it was no surprise when the visitors took the lead. Schneiderlin on hand at the near post to convert after West Ham slept from a short corner routine worked in by the impressive Ward-Prowse.

And it could have got worse for West Ham as Adrian was again in action, this time thwarting Pelle after Gaston Ramirez has played him in.

Nevertheless, Southampton were firmly in control. In the final stages Adrian pushed out Clyne's low centre but Pelle was on hand to fire home the Saints third sparking a mass exodus amongst the home crowd.

West Ham looked a well beaten side, with Southampton stroking the ball about and playing with some swagger. Indeed, the final whistle drew a chorus of booing from the fans who had seemed so assured 90 minutes previous.

Afterwards, Ronald Koeman said: "I see today we are a much better team than West Ham, and deserved the three points."

When quizzed about the Saints superior sharpness, the Dutchman exclaimed: "We train much differently to last season, less physical exercises, more football, more ball position exercises. We showed that in the last 10-15 minutes, and that's the way I like to play."

A dissatisfied Sam Allardyce said: "It was a massive disappointment, particularly at home. And went on to describe his teams display as 'a massive under performance right across the board'."

When Allardyce was asked if he expected to bring anyone else in before the transfer window closed, he said: "I don't know, I'd just had a massive uplift last night (after signing Alex Song). For me, the big letdown is that he (Song) arrives on the pitch and it should have lifted everybody, particularly the players on the pitch."

West Ham will look to get back on track when they visit the KC Stadium to take on Hull City, Monday September 15, kick-off 8pm.

West Ham United: Adrian, O'Brien, Tomkins, Reid, Cresswell, Noble, Kouyate, Downing, Zarate (Morrison 57), Vaz Te (Digne 58), Cole (Valencia 79) Subs: Jaaskelainen, Sakho, Demel, Poyet
Southampton: Forster, Clyne, Yoshida, Schneiderlin, Fonte, Long (Ramirez 66), Davis, Tadic, Ward-Prowse (Cork 71), Pelle, Bertrand. Subs: Davis, Gardos, Wanyama, Cork, Mayuka, Hooiveld
Referee: Mike Dean

Non-league round-up

Clubs up for the cup

by Brian Jeeves

IT was a case of Wembley dreams and nightmares as many of the regions non-league clubs competed for a place in the first qualifying round of the FA Cup.

Goals from Billy Coyne and Theo Ola saw Aveley home 2-0 against a spirited Basildon United side, while a dramatic stoppage time strike by Luke Wilson was enough to see Bowers & Pitsea see off Colney Heath by a goal to nil. Barkingside hammered Wivenhoe Town by five without reply and a late Courtney White goal saw Brentwood Town progress at the expense of Potters Bar Town.

There was a big win for Romford who won 4-0 at St Margaretsbury thanks to goals from Seymour, Imbert, Reynold and Barry, and Thurrock also won away, beating Cheshunt by a single goal.

Benjamin Hunt found the net for Tilbury, but the Dockers and opponents Codicote will have to try again after they played out a tense 1-1 draw.

But there was disappointment for some of our other clubs, who for this season, the Wembley dream is over. Maldon & Tiptree went down 2-1 at home to London Colney and there was a 3-1 home defeat for Burnham Ramblers against Hadleigh United.

Southend Manor crashed out 4-1 at Tower Hamlets, Edison Teberen, Cody Cameron and a brace from Tope Okeowo were on target for the home side, Rhys Fatt with a consolation for the Seaside. And Great Wakering Rovers difficult start to the season showed no sign of subsiding as they went down 3-2 at Hertford Town, Jay Nash twice on target for the Rovers. But there was better news for Great Wakering supporters, after the club advertised free admission for this Saturday's Ryman League One North game with Cray Wanderers at Burroughs Park. The gesture is in support of Non-league day and to highlight the "Kick it Out" campaign.

In the Vanarama Conference Premier, second half goals from Davis and Sparkes helped Braintree Town to a 2-0 win at Alfreton Town, but in the South Division Chelmsford City had a difficult afternoon, going down 3-1 at the Melbourne Stadium to Staines Town, Glen Southam on target for the Clarets. And Concord Rangers picked up a point as the Beach Boys game with Gosport Borough finishes scoreless.

In the Ryman Premier Division Billericay Town edged home 2-1 against Dulwich Hamlet, Steve Sheehan and Seedy Njie finding the net for the New Lodge outfit. Town also announced the signing of former Norwich City and Dagenham & Redbridge man Nathan Ferguson as manager Craig Edwards continues to shape his squad.

Mitchell Gilbey gave East Thurrock United a half time lead against Harrow Borough, but the visitors hit back to take the points 3-1. Witham Town went down 2-0 at VDC Athletic while Canvey Island felt the full force of Maidstone United who won 5-2 at the Gallagher Stadium in front of an impressive 1,511 crowd. Victor Osubu and Rob Bartley scoring late on for the Gulls.

Big winners in the Essex Senior League were Clapton, who thrashed Newham 6-0 at the Old Spotted Dog, Fahad Nyanja grabbing a hat trick for the Tons. Meanwhile in the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League Division One, Old Southendian began life under new manager Altan Ali with a thrilling 3-3 draw with Hutton.

AmD look to capitalise on success at Rockingham

Motor Racing

THE AmDTuning.com team will aim to build on the success it enjoyed at Knockhill when the Dunlop MSA British Touring Car Championship season continues at Rockingham this weekend.

The West Thurrock-based team secured a stunning first podium finish in the series during the Scottish event, with Inverness racer Dave Newsham producing his most impressive performance of the season to bring his Ford Focus home in second place in race three.

It capped an impressive weekend on track after two earlier top ten finishes, with Dave's performance being made all the more remarkable given that it came just days after the death of his mother - to whom he dedicated his results.

With the team having come of age during the seventh round of the season, Dave will now seek to impress again when the championship heads for Rockingham and the first of back-to-back events in Northants.

Boosted by his first podium of the campaign, Dave heads into the event in confident mood and will hope to add to his impressive Knockhill points haul to make further progress up the championship standings.

"The podium at Knockhill was a massive result for us," he said.

"We showed the pace we have in the car, and to run at the front and keep [championship leader] Colin Turkington at bay was a huge boost."

"We're heading for Rockingham in high spirits as a result, and I'm hopeful we can have another strong weekend. It's a circuit I enjoy and one that should suit the Focus."

"Knockhill showed how important it is to stay out of trouble and while I don't think we'll have the pace to qualify at the front, we'll aim to chip away at it during the races and work our way forwards as we did in Scotland."

"My confidence is on a high and I can't wait to get back in the car."

Team boss Shaun Hollamby meanwhile said he was keen for the AmDTuning.com team to again show what it is capable of when it hits the track in Corby.

"Knockhill was the kind of weekend we've been waiting for all season, and gives a real idea of what the team is capable of," he said.

"The aim now is to try and repeat that at Rockingham. Although the circuit is very different to Knockhill, we're confident that the work we've carried out on the Focus will allow us to run towards the top ten."
